to-morrow and it is understood that a representative of the immigration service will confer with Commissioner Bingham and a plan of joint action be mapped out. Despite qualified genials, justified by the secret nature of the work, it is known that a systematic campaign against those suspected of anarchistic sympathies has been quietly waged in this city for months.

JUST AN ANONYMOUS LETTER.

A report that Archbishop Farley, head of the Catholic Church in New York, has been threatened by anarchists reached Commissioner Bingham to-day but he would not confirm it later. The archbishop's subordinates, however, have been in communication with the police in an effort to hunt lown the nuthors.

In a formal statement to-night Mr. Bingham declared: "The only founds tion for the story concerning a threat made against Archbishop Parley is an anonymous letter received at police beadquarters six months ago, in which his name and the names of other prominent men were mentioned. This was a typical 'bug' letter and no attention was paid to it. Every promigent man receives scores of such letters and if any attention was paid to them the recipients would never have
